People Custom Data

Custom Data fields are available to allow Users to enter additional information against a Person record which may not fall into any of the pre-defined fields. Custom Data can be entered using the Add/Edit/View Custom Data button. For more information on how to configure Custom Data, see the Custom Data page.